

PUSSY WILLOW IS HERE; SHE CAME BY PARCEL POST

Asks That Mother Be Told
She Has Safely Arrived in This Wicked City.

SHE'S GRATEFUL TO TOM

Not Tom Cat, but Tom Ryan,
Who Heard a Hunger Cry
and Saved Her Life.

Up in Cairo, N. Y., there's a big, black old tabby cat with a sleek, glossy coat, long whiskers and great green eyes full of worldly feline wisdom who would be mighty glad if some kind person could and would translate these lines into cat language for her. It would take a world of worry off her mind and a big load off her heart and make the next mouse she catches twice as enjoyable as it otherwise will be.

Just imagine how you would feel if one of your favorite kittens—providing, of course, YOU were a cat—had been sent traveling a long, long way by parcel post to a wicked, wicked city from a quiet little country town, and you didn't know whether she had arrived safely or not! I guess you'd worry a bit, too, eh? Well, that's what's bothering that big old Cairo tabby cat.

But now she may put her mind at rest. The Evening World is in a position to assure her that her favorite child, Pussy Willow, has arrived safely at the home of Mrs. P. C. Bainley, No. 427 East Twenty-first Street, Flat-bush, and that she not only met with no mishaps en route, but even enjoyed some phases of her journey. Of course, quarters were somewhat cramped in the little wooden crate that was her Pullman car, but then one can't expect everything when one is traveling, can one?

Miss Pussy Willow, having carefully removed from her glossy coat the dust of travel, consented to-day, at her new mistress's home, to tell an Evening World reporter of her journey, the first a cat ever made by parcel post.

WHEN THE HUMAN TOM CAME TO THE RESCUE.

"I'll tell you all about it on one condition," insisted Miss Pussy Willow. "That is that you be sure to mention my good friend, Thomas Ryan. No, of course not! Thomas isn't a cat, even if his name does sound like it. He's a clerk in the General Post Office, and if it hadn't been for him I'd have jolly near starved to death on the trip. There is one thing I must say about this parcel post, and that is that the dining accommodations are very poor."

FACE ACHED FROM PIMPLES
Mostly On Forehead. Caused Disfigurement. Would Itch.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My face began to break out in pimples mostly on my forehead. The pimples caused disfigurement while they lasted as they were large and red. They would fester up and itch awful and I often scratched them until my face was all irritated. At night I would lose my rest as my whole face ached."

"The trouble lasted about six months before I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Then I washed my face well with Cuticura Soap. I repeated this each night before retiring for about three or four weeks, and I was healed." (Signed) E. W. Kreiser, 43 Mary St., Binghamton, N. Y., Jan. 14, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail

With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

Millions Thankfully Praise
Carter's Little Liver Pills

A vigorous stomach, perfect working liver and regular acting bowels belong to all who are wise enough to use Carter's Little Liver Pills. Purely vegetable.

Imitations are numerous—look out for them. Insist on Carter's Little Liver Pills if you want good health, a clear complexion and freedom from indigestion.

Small Pill, Small Dose, Small Price
GENUINE must bear signature

Constipation
Biliousness
Sick Headache
Torpid Liver
Indigestion
Dizziness
Nervousness
Loss of Appetite
Sallow Skin

HOME GYMNASIUM FOR WOMEN BY PAULINE FURLONG

No. 56—Strengthening the Weak Back.

The back is one of the most common points of weakness, and this is usually caused by strain placed upon the ligaments and supporting muscles of the back. Incorrect carriage of the body is the most frequent cause of this strain, and often results in habitually curved spine. The strain may also result from sudden exertion, which injures the muscles or a ligament and leaves the back in a weakened condition.

Incorrect carriage of the body forces the different parts of it, such as the ribs, shoulders, collar bone and vertebrae, out of their rightful places, causing muscular strain, which leads to lameness and weakness of the back. Curvature of the spine, which is so common and so little understood, and frequently makes it almost impossible for the sufferer to lift the slightest weight or even walk a short distance, may be speedily and permanently overcome and cured by a systematic course in proper exercises to strengthen the curved spinal column and develop the muscles which hold it in place.

Among the most important ones are the body bending, at the waist line, as illustrated, and should be taken every day. Raise and bend at least fifty times, unless it fatigues you, in which case discontinue or reduce the number of bends until you can perform them without tiring. Another effective exercise for crooked spine is performed by taking your position, with the feet together, chest and head up, body swayed forward, with the weight on the balls of the feet, and as you raise your arms, clasp your hands, take a deep full breath, and while holding the breath, and the hands clasped above the head, as far as the arms will reach, twist the body first to the right and then to the left, with the feet kept perfectly straight. Keep up the movement until out of breath. After relaxing continue the exercise, but not until you are fatigued.

Readers of Miss Furlong's articles are invited to write to her, in care of The Evening World, requesting information that will aid them in following her illustrated lessons.

LETTERS FROM EVENING WORLD READERS FOLLOWING MISS FURLONG'S LESSONS.

EDITH L. (Salt Lake City) writes: "Will you kindly print the formula for hardening the flabby breast?"

Use the following as a wash every day and it will restore the contour and firmness of the breast: Alcohol, five ounces; Camomile water (strong), two ounces; Alum solution (strong), two ounces.

MRS. M. T. W. writes: "Will you please state why I am so pale, as I dance and walk for many hours each day and night?"

The paleness is an indication of impoverished blood. While both of these exercises are beneficial, especially walking, as it is done in the fresh air, both may be overdone.

MRS. M. G. (Cleveland) writes: "Your exercises have done wonders for me and I have lost fifteen pounds in five weeks. Please tell me if coffee, with a little sugar and cream, will help keep me stout. I find the rest of the diet, same, reasonable and easy to live on two meals a day. Are you sure that this advice is the best for all persons, as I miss the other meal so much?"

The no breakfast plan has never injured any one, to my knowledge, and all are far better off with but two meals a day. If you miss the first meal, let it mean omit the noon one instead; if you are trying to reduce, take a salad without oil, or an apple, if you feel you need food.

MISS SOPHIE VANDER OSTEN of Cherry Lane, West New Brighton, has gone to New Mexico to visit friends.

The engagement is announced of Miss Gertrude Cole of Albion Place, Fort Richmond, and Herman Dunbar, C. H. Rucke has returned to his home in St. George from a visit of six months in Germany.

A new council of the Daughters of America will be instituted in Christ Church Parish Hall, New Dorp, Tuesday evening. State Councilor Davis and staff will install the new officers.

MISS SOPHIE VANDER OSTEN of Cherry Lane, West New Brighton, has gone to New Mexico to visit friends.

The engagement is announced of Miss Gertrude Cole of Albion Place, Fort Richmond, and Herman Dunbar, C. H. Rucke has returned to his home in St. George from a visit of six months in Germany.

A new council of the Daughters of America will be instituted in Christ Church Parish Hall, New Dorp, Tuesday evening. State Councilor Davis and staff will install the new officers.

MISS SOPHIE VANDER OSTEN of Cherry Lane, West New Brighton, has gone to New Mexico to visit friends.

The engagement is announced of Miss Gertrude Cole of Albion Place, Fort Richmond, and Herman Dunbar, C. H. Rucke has returned to his home in St. George from a visit of six months in Germany.

NO LOWER RENTS UNDER SINGLE TAX, SAY REALTY MEN

Experts Present 107 Reasons
Against Campaigners for Levy on Land.

FEAR PANIC IN CHANGE.

Property Interests File Mass
of Statistics to Enlighten Mayor's Committee.

Can rents be reduced by untaxing buildings? Single taxers and realty experts are engaged in a battle royal over this issue. Hearings began this week before the Mayor's Committee on Taxation. They will be continued on Nov. 15 and 22, with a special day for labor's side of the controversy on Nov. 17.

More than two score leaders from the Real Estate Board and Advisory Council of Real Estate Interests will present arguments against the single tax theories next week. Their committee have filed exhaustive answers to all of the 107 questions propounded by the Mayor's investigators. They are unanimous that the single tax on land would raise instead of lower rents, declaring it would be disastrous to real estate, public progress and the welfare of the people generally.

HIGHER RENTS FOLLOW TAX ON LAND ALONE.

Regarding rents, the Real Estate Board says: "It has been the custom among owners to carry no fund for depreciation of buildings as the expected increase in land value has been relied on to cover this cost. Therefore, it may be presumed that rents have been lower by just so much as would have been sufficient to create such a fund."

"If the tax on buildings were transferred to land, it would diminish land values, and to cover this and the depreciation of their buildings owners would have to add so much more to rent in order to obtain an adequate return on their capital."

"A higher tax rate on improved property, whether on the land or the entire holding, must result in higher rents."

"If taxes become so high that the return on the investment is below the rate yielded by other forms of investment, capital would not go into rentable properties and building activity would decline. Rents should rise to a level that would restore the income yielded upon buildings to that of other forms of investment capital."

"Low rents due to an increase in building could result only from a very large increase in such operations, and the main effect would fall upon the older and poorer buildings."

"Rents are regulated very little by taxation when compared with the vast influence of the law of supply and demand as applied in conjunction with the prevailing interest rate on capital."

HIGH TAX ON LAND TENDS TO DISCOURAGE BUILDERS.

Among the results of the Advisory Council's investigations, as revealed in the voluminous answers of its experts to the 107 questions, are these facts:

"High rents cause high land values and not the converse."

"A high tax rate on buildings theoretically increases rents."

"High taxation of land operates as a great discouragement to real estate investment and building enterprises, thus tending to counteract the supposed stimulus to building."

"If the untaxing of buildings produced a 10 per cent. decline in land values, it might bring about wholesale going fast, because the last buyers have the distinct advantage of coming in on a flourishing development with property all around in the hands of other users. A large part of our other sales are to friends of earlier satisfied buyers."

STATEN ISLAND NOTES.

The establishment of two additional ferries between Staten Island and New Jersey will be up for discussion Monday at 3 o'clock, when Dock Commissioner Smith gives a hearing on the application for charters by the Perth Amboy-Tottenville and Littletonville-Carleton Ferry Companies.

The prairie schooner expedition which left Staten Island last April on a trip to the Pacific has been abandoned at Denver. The outfit was sold by the sole survivor of the trip, John F. Drebbinger Jr. of St. George, who continued to the fair by train.

A Young Men's Hebrew Association will be organized to-morrow evening in the vestry room of Temple Emanuel, 121 Port Richmond.

Miss Bertha Warren of Stapleton has returned from a visit with friends in Philadelphia.

Michael J. Halloran, new Postmaster at Stapleton, will take up his duties Monday, succeeding Frederick Rucke, whose term expired.

The West New Brighton Board of Trade has appointed a committee to arrange for a testimonial dinner to Commissioner of Public Works Henry P. Morrison at Hugot's Hall, St. George, Dec. 1. Charles B. Dulles is Chairman.

MISS SOPHIE VANDER OSTEN of Cherry Lane, West New Brighton, has gone to New Mexico to visit friends.

counted." "There is no appreciable purchase of property in New York City with a view of holding it out of use for long periods and then reselling it at a profit, for the simple reason that carrying charges are so great there would be no profit."

"City land, as a rule, is financed for improvement as soon as this can be done with profit."

"Nearly all mortgages are owned by small investors, because savings banks, life insurance companies and other financial institutions interested in real estate are only intermediaries for depositors."

As to the chaos in public finances to be anticipated under a single tax system, the Real Estate Board quotes Henry George in his "Progress and Poverty" as follows:

"I do not propose to purchase or to confiscate private property in land. The first would be unjust; the second needless. Let the individuals who now hold it still retain it, if they want to, possession of what they are pleased to call their land. Let them continue to call it their land. Let them buy and sell and bequeath and devise it. We may safely leave them the shell if we take the kernel. It is not necessary to confiscate rents."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

other financial institutions interested in real estate are only intermediaries for depositors."

As to the chaos in public finances to be anticipated under a single tax system, the Real Estate Board quotes Henry George in his "Progress and Poverty" as follows:

"I do not propose to purchase or to confiscate private property in land. The first would be unjust; the second needless. Let the individuals who now hold it still retain it, if they want to, possession of what they are pleased to call their land. Let them continue to call it their land. Let them buy and sell and bequeath and devise it. We may safely leave them the shell if we take the kernel. It is not necessary to confiscate rents."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

to call their land. Let them continue to call it their land. Let them buy and sell and bequeath and devise it. We may safely leave them the shell if we take the kernel. It is not necessary to confiscate rents."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon land value. * * * That is the first step upon which the practical struggle must be made. When the hare is once caught and killed, cooking him will follow as a matter of course."

"We may put the proposition into practical form by proposing to abolish all taxation save that upon